Discover Warsaw

Royal Castle in Warsaw

A spectacular and fascinating building. Make sure to visit when in Warsaw and maybe even take a tour if you want to learn more.

Lazienki Park

Fancy a break from the tourism and history? Then why not take a stroll through this amazing 76 hectare park in the city center?

Warsaw Uprising Museum

The Uprising of 1944 was one of the most monumental events in Polish history, and a tour of this museum will teach you all about it.

Wilanów Palace

A resting place for King Jan III, the surrounding areas became the locale for splendid gardens, as well as a grange with farm buildings and a menagerie.

Culture & Science Palace

This monument is the 8th tallest building in the European Union and is a very interesting remnant of Soviet history.

Wisla River

You won't find a river like this in other European capitals! On the left bank, you can enjoy entertainment, eat well, and take part in cultural events. The clean and well-maintained beaches draw sports enthusiasts and those who love to laze about.
